The power behind Countrywide

The Countrywide Network represents a large proportion of the total GWP transacted in the UK's provincial broking segment. That's why being part of the Network attracts rewards from our insurer partners - rewards which give you the advantage.

One of the key aims of Countrywide is to help our Members' businesses to grow. Enhanced commission levels generate greater income. Better rates can aid in building a wider customer base and the range of products available creates an exciting proposition for your customers.

Insurer partnerships

As a Countrywide Member you will benefit from a designated agency team to help you gain access to major insurers, thereby allowing you to experience the type of service only your larger counterparts would normally expect.

Our insurer relations team continuously work with our partners to ensure you get the best products - products that are right for your customers. They negotiate hard on your behalf and closely monitor performance so that improvements can be made for your benefit.

Countrywide offers access to an extensive range of personal and commercial lines products that cover a huge variety of standard and exclusive specialist markets to help you exploit new opportunities.

The service

Countrywide makes business easier. We have agreements from insurers that ensure a higher level of service standards and many that also provide exclusive access to dedicated underwriting teams. Both result in less complications and greater levels of support for you.
